

IRENA REPP CIF Workshop

RISK MITIGATION IN RENEWABLE ENERGY INVESTMENTS IN AFRICA

DAY 2

Crowne Plaza Hotel, Nairobi, 29 Jan 2018

Group Discussions

Group 1	Accessing risk mitigation for project development
Key Questions	How to mitigate policy/regulatory uncertainty? Is there a need for RMIs or direct risk financing? What is the appropriate risk allocation amongst stakeholders? How can project development capacity be improved?
Rapporteur	Brian Kelly

Group Discussions

Group 2	Accessing RMIs during financing, construction and operations
Key Questions	Is there a lack of capacity among key stakeholders with regard to RMIs? If so, what are these and how might they be addressed? How best to improve access to RMIs for project developers and sponsors? Please suggest practical suggestions to improve access and reduce delays and costs for project developers?
Rapporteur	Peter van den Dool

Group 1	Assessing risk mitigation for project development
Key Questions	How to mitigate policy/regulatory uncertainty? Is there a need for RMIs or direct risk financing? What is the appropriate risk allocation amongst stakeholders? How can project development capacity be improved?
Rapporteur	TBD

Group 2	Assessing RMIs during financing, construction and operations
Key Questions	Is there a lack of capacity among key stakeholders with regard to RMIs? If so, what are these and how might they be addressed? How best to improve access to RMIs for project developers and sponsors? Please suggest practical suggestions to improve access and reduce delays and costs for project developers?
Rapporteur	Peter van den Dool

Group 3	Improving effectiveness and efficiency for RMIs
Key Questions	How can RE programmes at national and regional scale best be supported through coordination and standardisation? What forms should this take to scale up large utility-scale projects? What forms should this take to scale up smaller utility-scale projects? How can private sector providers participate more actively in supporting such initiatives?
Rapporteur	Jef Vincent